There is not a better time than December to discover Chicago in all its festivities and excitement. Upon arrival in Chicago you will visit the Smith Museum of Stained Glass Windows. The museum is a permanent display of 150 stained glass windows housed in an 800 foot long series of galleries along the lower level terraces of Festival Hall. It is the first museum in the United States dedicated solely to stained glass windows. The museum showcases both secular and religious window and is divided by artistic theme in four categories: Victorian, Prairie, Modern and Contemporary. The museum provides unique insight into Chicago's cultural, ethnic and artistic history. Next, explore Navy Pier, the place where Chicago and tourists alike come together to enjoy all the fun and beauty of an evening on Lake Michigan. You will have free time for shopping for unique specialty items and souvenirs and to have dinner on your own at any of the restaurants at Navy Pier.

Day 2: Wednesday, December 8

After breakfast, enjoy an interesting and fully narrated guided tour of Chicago. A professional guide will point out the historic and significant sights while paying special attention to the fabulous public sculptures in the Loop. You will see the fantastic Millennium Park, wonderful outdoor art, the Magnificent Mile with its glittering department stores and the Landmark Tower which survived the Great Fire. Sears Tower, the tallest building in the Western Hemisphere, is Chicago's most visited and highest observatory. Visitors from all over the world come to the Christkindlmarket in Chicago annually and the numbers continue to grow every year. It is so popular and loved by all that any Chicagoan will tell you that they could not imagine the city without it. It is no longer just a German tradition; it has become a Chicago institution.
