In April 2018, two friends and I traveled to Fairhope, Alabama named by SOUTHERN LIVING as one of the best small towns in the South to visit. Just off the shore of the beautiful Mobile Bay sits Fairhope, an exceptional town full of history, beauty and entertainment. Fairhope’s downtown radiates the warm and friendly charm of a walkable Southern town. The downtown is bursting with art galleries, street artists, boutiques and restaurants featured on the Food Network.

We stayed at the Hampton Inn located in downtown allowing us to “do our own thing”; shopping, eating, enjoying the beautiful streets lined with flowers as well as visiting The Fairhope Museum of History.

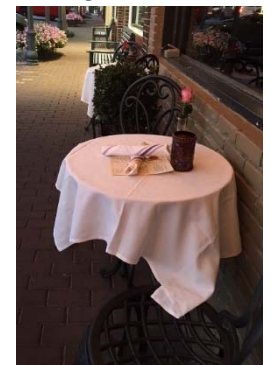

The third day, we enjoyed a drive along the coast via the Biloxi Lighthouse, one of the most historic lighthouses in the South. Not only did it survive the Civil War, it survived two of the deadliest hurricanes in American history, Camille and Katrina.

After Biloxi, we decided to visit Pass Christian, Mississippi where we found a unique shop called Robin’s Nest. After visiting the shop we had a delightful lunch at Bacchus on the Beach followed by a drive through Bay St. Louis before heading back to Fairhope in time to check out another featured restaurant.

While driving home we reflected on our trip and realized the gems we uncovered must be shared.

Following near the same itinerary we had in April of 2018, Travel with Ledean would like to share this trip with YOU!

Please enjoy pictures of Fairhope on the back.
